

Service Electrician Position Description

Project #: 1410
Job Title: Service Electrician
Location: Calgary Region
Reporting to: Project Manager
Date: October 15, 2009

Overview

GENEX is seeking an experienced journeyman electrician to handle repair and maintenance service calls for commercial and residential customers.

Responsibilities

- Repair, installation and maintenance of electrical systems.
- Solve customer problems.
- Provide excellent customer service and timely response of customer calls.
- Accurate time and billing submissions, including time cards, purchases orders and receipts.
- Responsible for care and maintenance of service van.
- Supervision and mentorship of apprentices.

Qualifications

- Alberta Journeyman Certification or equivalent.
- Minimum of 5 years of electrical experience post certification.
- Experience servicing commercial and residential markets.
- Proven customer service skills
- Experience with data and phone considered an asset.
- Clean driver's license.

How to Apply for this job

Send cover letter and resume to careers@genexpower.com, quoting project 1410 in the subject line.

Due to the number of applicants, only qualified candidates for this position will be contacted. This competition will close when a suitable candidate is selected.